

TODAY'S NEWS

Is Ori Hollander the best candidate for Vice President? By:

Ethan Evans

Is there any problems you want to change in the school?

"Yes. I would make lunch five minutes longer, and put paper towels in the bathrooms instead of the blow dryers, make sure the kids are more aware of what they're putting in the 3 trash bins at lunch."

How committed are you to your job?

"I'm very committed and I will work over time to make sure every kid is treated fairly and to make the school a better place for everyone."

What should people expect from you if you win?

"If I win people should expect a honest, loyal friend who never stops to get the job done. I will be the best leader I can and will be as committed as possible."

Ori Hollander has said that he will be the best that he can be many times. And I believe that he is the best choice for a Vice President because he promised that he will not give up and that he believes he has the best ability to be the best Vice President. "I will prevent people bullying. For example, if I see it happening I will ask them their name and report them to Mr. Bechtol."

Who is Ori Hollander?

Ori Hollander is a committed hard working kid. He has experience in being a leader he is a leader on his soccer team and one of the leaders of our class. He is also very smart, respectful, and honest, and he will do his very best to make the school better.

Why should people vote for you?

"I think most of the voters are voting for their friends and not for the people they really believe can be the best Vice President. I am not running for popularity. I'm running so the kids at this school have the best experience they can have, the best